

The 40th Médiévales de Provins

14 & 15 june 2025

On 14 and 15 June 2025, the UNESCO World Heritage-listed medieval town will be celebrating the 40th Médiévales de Provins!

The celebrations will include a number of new features to make this 40th edition an unforgettable weekend!

A journey through time, where young and old alike can relive the Champagne Fairs as they were celebrated in Provins in the 12th and 13th centuries! You'll find craftsmen, merchants and medieval enthusiasts in an authentic and well-preserved historic and architectural setting.

Tournaments, dances, music, games, jousts and street performances will amaze the whole family! Not forgetting the great classics of the festival: the traditional Medieval Ball on the Place du Châtel, the Medieval Concert and the exceptional costume parade on Sunday.

For 2 days, troubadours, minstrels, acrobats, entertainers and craftsmen will be bringing you a timeless experience!

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Where ? Provins - 1h away from Paris (80 km southeast)
Line P - Paris Gare de l'Est

When ? Saturday 14 and Sunday 15 june 2025
Saturday 9:30 a.m. - midnight - Sunday 10 a.m
- 6 p.m.

Prices ? Adultes : 1 day: 13€ | 2 days: 18€
Online presales: 1 day: 12€ | 2 days: 16€
Children under 12: free
People in medieval costume: 1 day: 9€ | 2
days: 12€

Press Contact : Laura Martin - 01 64 60 26 23 - lmartin@provins.net